ANSWER TWO QUESTIONS

Answer Section One and one question from Section Two.

SECTION ONE

1. Give a brief account of the scope, purpose and process of your research project for this course. What particular issues raised by the course did you address?

SECTION TWO

2. Write an essay on the theoretical issues that arise from one of the following concepts: authorship, intertextuality, canons.

3. Taking a particular case study of your own choice, show how the interpretation of a 'text' can be affected by a knowledge of its material history (Note: avoid discussing a text you have dealt with in Question One).

4. Describe and evaluate two different types of editorial practice.
