

Ollscoil na hEireann, Gallimh
National University of Ireland, Galway
WINTER EXAMINATION 2003
Final Medical Examination
OBSTETRICS & GYNAECOLOGY

Professor John J Morrison

Mr Gerald A Hackett

Dr Geraldine Gaffney

Time Allowed: 3 Hours

Attempt all questions

Please use separate answer books for each question

1. A forty year old woman with a history of menorrhagia has been found to have a fibroid uterus of approximately 16 weeks in size. Discuss the appropriate management.
2. Write an essay about the diagnosis, management and clinical implications of fetal intrauterine growth retardation.
3. Write short notes on each of the following:
 - (a) Endometrial carcinoma.
 - (b) Torsion of an ovarian cyst.
 - (c) Eclampsia.
 - (d) Fetal nuchal translucency.
4. Discuss the diagnosis, management and complications of diabetes in pregnancy.
5. Outline the risk factors, clinical presentation, diagnosis and treatment of female urinary stress incontinence.